MEMORANDUM FOR Major General G. F. Cross

1. As you may know, on 9 February Majors Johnson and Derry of my office made arrangements with Gen. Wylie for a visit by Captain Parsons, USN, and Lt. Col. Lockridge to Col. Grinstead, Chief of the Overseas Supply Division, P.O.S., Oakland Army Base, to discuss shipments of certain material of a special nature through the Port at Oakland. Captain Parsons visited Col. Grinstead on 21 February, and Lt. Col. Lockridge on 22 February.

2. The visit resulted in entirely satisfactory arrangements being made for all of which I am grateful to you.

L. E. GROVES,
Major General, G. S.
